THE SIMPLE FUNERAL

We have comprised this package for those who wish to keep the funeral costs to a minimum. This service consists of the funeral directors' fees, plus those disbursement fees paid on your behalf for the crematorium, doctors, and officiant. Visiting your loved one is available for the fee of £75 as detailed in our 'Services and Products' price list. Other additional services are available through our bespoke funeral option only.

This service includes transfer of the deceased into our care, completion of all documentation, provision of a hearse, a simple light oak veneered coffin (in a standard size) with name plate, Conductor and necessary staff, a Cremation service at Markeaton Crematorium on a date of our choosing with the service usually taking place between 8:30am – 10:00am. Full payment is required in advance of the funeral taking place.

TOTAL £3050 inclusive of disbursements

If you wish to specify the crematorium, this may increase the price.*

DIRECT CREMATION

Our Direct Cremation package has been created for those who would like a very simple funeral with no attendance. The direct cremation costs consist of the funeral directors' fees and those disbursement fees paid on your behalf such as the crematorium and doctors' fees. There are a growing number of direct cremation van operators. We conduct ourselves by our company values, which is why we promise as funeral directors at the heart of the community we will never compromise on service, dignity, and care. A photo of the coffin going into the service chapel on the day of the funeral can be provided on request.

This service includes transfer of the deceased into our care inside office hours, completion of all documentation, doctors' fees where applicable, cremation on a day and time that we choose with no service or mourner attendance at the crematorium, suitable simple coffin (in a standard size) with nameplate, option to collect the cremated remains from the crematorium or an unwitnessed scattering of the ashes in the Garden of Remembrance.

Full payment is required at the arrangement.
